P. E. COUNCIL CLOSES SESSION

Meeting in Connection With Foreign Missions—Address on China.

EXECUTIVE SESSION.

Judge Norton Representative to Grand Council—Meets Next Year in Alexandria.

(Special Correspondence Alexandria Gazette.)

SECOND DAY.

Night session.

Charlottesville, Va., May 22.—The regular annual meeting of the Council on foreign missions took place at 8 o'clock in Christ Church, when the address was given by the Rev. T. L. Sinclair, missionary at Taichow, China, followed by the Rev. John Scott, a colored clergyman of the diocese on work among his people.

The Council continued its executive session after the close of this meeting. The final vote was taken about 12 o'clock thus accepting all the resolutions of the report of the committee on Social Service. At the beginning of the executive session the Rev. W. R. Bowie presented the report and spoke to it with ability. The debate following, was also ably conducted. The following resolutions were passed unanimously:

First—The Council believing that the Spirit of Jesus working through His Spirit will express itself in ever-widening from the human service,urges upon the ministers in this diocese, and particularly in the country parishes, that by word and by leadership, they teach their people that their Christianity should prove itself by alent and earnest readiness to strengthen every co-operative movement which works for better health, for better education, for happy and clean recreation, and for progress along any other particular way which leads to the community's large good.

The second resolution is that the Council endorses the purpose of the Social Service Commission to co-operate with other agencies in advocating the passage by the next legislature of a bill ombodying the provisions of the Byrd child labor bill, defeated at the last session, and the Council urges its individual memmors,to arouse and to express to their legislative representatives, public sentiment in the respective communities in favor of this bill.

The resolution on the problem of Social Vice was passed by a vote by orders after an able debate. All agreed upon the fundamental prnciple of the resolution, but those who voted in the negative, held that the first work in relation to this should be the educative. The vote stood, clerical, in favor of the resolution, 33; negative, 15; lay, in favor of the resolution, 22, negative, 14.

The resolution is as follows:

It is the sense of this Council that, for the sake of the protection of women, and for the sake of a higher appeal to men, it is desirable that ministers of the diocese, as rapidly as they can, secure such a co-operation from the physicians of their communities as shall satisfy them that their position will be effective, either by themselves, or in conjunction with ministers of other churches, shall declare their determination to perform the marriage service of the church only when the man to be married shall secure from the family physician of his intended bride, or from some other physician certified to by the bride's physician, a certificate of freedom of communicable disease of immoral origin.

The resolution is in line with the famous decision as to marriages performed in the Episcapal Cathedral of Chicago, taken by Dean Sumner. Virginia is the first diocese, however, to act upon it. At present the intent of this resolution is not mandatory, but educative.

THIRD DAY.

Charlottesville, May 23.

Morning Session.

The Council met for business at 9:30 a. m., with Bishop Gibson in the chair. The reading of the minutes was laid aside on account of pressure of business, and Judge Wallace then read the report of the committee on the proposed change of name. The recommendations of the Bishop in his opening address on Wednesday morning were highly approved and accepted. The committee stated its opposition to the proposed change of name, and declared for proportionate representation in General convention. This report was adopted by the Council. Col. Eugene Massie then presented a resolution on the change of name as a supplement to the report of the committee which asked the deputies to do all they can with firmness, moderation and Christian charity to propose any proposals in favor of the change of name, or elimination of the word Protestant, from the name of the church.

Discussion followed on the question of proportionate representation.

The Council passed by a unanimous vote the resolution submitted by the committee against the proposed change of name also the supplement to the report offered by Col. Eugene Massie given above. The resolution of the committee on proportionate representation was laid on the table.

St. Thomas' Church, Ginter Park, Richmond, was admitted to the Council, on recommendation of the committee on New Parishes.

An amendment to Council of the Diocesan Canons was passed, charging the executice committee with the conduct and supervision of the missionary work of the church within the diocese, except such are strictly parochial,and shall receive appropriate and disburse all contributions made for such missionary work. Auxiliary societies shall be under its direction.

The Social Service committee was re-elected.

The Council then took a recess for divine service at which the preacher was the Rev. J. G. Downman D. D., of Richmond.

At the close of the divine service the report on the State of the Church was read by the Rev. G. P. Mayo. It spoke of the progress of the diocese with much satisfaction, the number of confirmations being large, and the response to the apportionment of budget of the diocese most liberal, $36,000 a year being called for and over $40,000 being given. The diocesan missioner the Rev. W. P. Dame, has done most important and consecrated work. St. Paul's Chapel, at the University, under the efficient ministry of the Rev. B. D. Tucker, deserves the full support of the diocese. Its situation near the University makes it a point of the greatest importance when we consider the number of Episcopalian students at that institution. The social service commission marks the interest of this church in the awakening Christian and social conscience. The decrease in the number of infant baptisms is most serious, and should receive the most earnest consideration on the part of the clergy.

The Rev. G. McLaren Brydon read a most interesting report on the report of Colonial Churches in that diocese.

It was agreed by the Council that, appreciating the offer on the part of the authorities of Woodberry School of a chapel to be placed under the Episcopal supervision of the Bishop of Virginia, it is the sense of this Council that Cannonical provision be made so as to bring this chapel into relation with this diocese.

A resolution was passed authorizing the Brotherhood of St. Paul to be the official missionary society among boys.

A vote of thanks was accorded to the rector and congregation of Christ Church, Charlottesville, for their generous hospitality to the Council, and also to the ladies of this congregation, and to those of St. Paul's Guild, University, for their luncheons to the Council, so bountifully and beautifully served. Also to the railroads for their reduced rates.

The budget for the diocese was announced for the present council year as follows:

To Diocesan Mission, $18,000; Bible and Prayer Book Society, $150.00; Disabled Clergy, $2,000; Widows and Orphans, $2,350; Educational Society, $1000;general missions,$15,250; General Clergy Fund, $750.

The number of communicatns so far reported this year is 12,143; general contributions, $247,804; baptisms, 743; confirmations reported 637. It must be remembered that the whole number of parochial reports are not as yet sent into the secretary, as the full report of parochial statistics will be larger when the Journal is published.

Other routine reports were made after which the Council adjourned sine die to meet in Christ Church, Alexandria on the third Wednesday of next May. The hymn, "Blest be the Tie That Binds," was then sung and the Bishop closed the Council with prayer and the benediction.

This council was noted for the amount and dispatch of the business. It took strong hold of living questions in Sunday School work and Social Service, and its work will have an influence on the Episcopal Church in the diocese of Virginia for years to come. St. Paul's Alexandria and all the Episcopalians of that city are to be congratulated on the honor conferred upon them in election of Judge Norton as one of the lay delegates to the general convention which meets in New York, next October.

CHINA IN QUEST OF MORE MONEY

Wilson's Attitude Prevents Application to United States.

WANTS $500,000,000.

Dr. Sun Anxious to Build Ten Thousand Miles of Railway—Estimates Reduced to Ten Thousand.

London, May 24.—George Bronson Rea, secretary of the Chinese National Railway Corporation, is in London with the power of attorney o Dr. Sun Yatsen to borrow $500,000,000 for the purpose of building 10,000 miles of railway within the next fifteen years. Dr. Sun wanted 60,000 miles built, but Mr. Rea cut his estimate to 10,000. Mr. Rea has undertaken to get the money without utilizing the financial groups so cordially disliked by the Chinese parliament.

Discussing the questions involved, Mr. Rea said:

"Our first thought was to raising money in America. I knew that the American group headed by the Morgan firm could easily handle it, of course taking in the other powers after the loan was started, but we had to be in a position to elimnate the phases of the former loan contract so unwelcome to the Chinese.

"My desire was to have America supply $125,000,000 n ten years and have the other powers take the remainder, but all our plans fell through when it was found President Wilson had with drawn governmental support from the American banking group, and I had to come to England and Americans won't enter China unless reported by their government.

"It seems to me that sooner or later President Wilson will be compelled to modify his policy, because with the new tariff all conditions in America will be changed. The country must find an export market, and China is the richest field the world now offers. Political conditions in China make it practicable for Americans to enter the field without government support, while, aside from the Morgan group, there is no other in the United States strong enough to float the loan independently."

ROADWAY TO BE PARKED.

Highway From Washington to Arlington to be Beautified.

When the new driveway being constructed by the Unted States government from the south end of the Highway bridge to the Arlington cemetery is completed, which is expected by the middle of the summer, work will probably be commenced on parking the whole section it traverses, including a large part of the experimental farms conducted by the government.

The marshy ground between the Virginia shore line and the new sea wall will be filled and made a part of the parking scheme. The new Memorial bridge will also be erected at this point, and the improvements when completed will open up a section now little used because of its inaccessibility.

FIRE COMMITTEE EXPLAINS

Say Water Company Was Informed That Test Would be Made.

According to a statement made today by C. J. W. Summers chairman of the fire committee of City Council, the Alexandria Water Company was notified that the test of the water supply would be made on last Thursday afternoon and they were represented by their Superintendent, Mr. Power. Mr. Summers stated that Thomas Chauncey, secretary of the committee, advised the water company at 10 o'clock of the matter and Mr. Chauncey telephoned the Gazette today to the same effect.

Mr. Summers stated that it was not the desire of his committee to take unfair advantage of any one, but they only wanted to find out why the fire department could not secure water from the downtown plugs. A full report was made of the test and will be considered by the fire committee at an early date.

Mr. Summers also took exception to certain statements made yesterday by Mr. Roberts president of the Water Company. He produced a map showing the location of the four-inch mains which runs the length of Union streets where the greatest conflagrations are liable to occur.

He also said that Mr. Roberts was certainly misinformed if he stated that as much water could be secured from a 4-inch main in the outlet to the plug was only two and one-half inches on each. In the section of the city where there are large mains, using exactly the same kind of plug, the flow of water is sufficient for all fire purpises.

PART OF REWARD IS PAID.

John Cook, of Danville, Receives $400 Check for W. S. Paylor.

Danville, Va., May 24.—Clerk of the Corporation Court, has received a check of $400 from the Fidelity and Deposit Company, of Baltimore, for affording that company the information which led to the arresting of ex-city Treasurer William S. Paylor in Buenos Aires, South America, last December. This sum represents the reward offered jointly by the Illinois Surety Company, of Chicago, and the Baltimore firm some time after Paylor slipped away from the city last July.

There is still a sum of $200 which remains to be paid, and that is the money offered by Governor Mann, on behalf of the State of Virginia.

MRS. WALKER GRIEVES.

Reported to be Innocent Cause of Fatal Mistake.

Macon, Ga., May 24.—Mrs. B. Sanders Walker, widow of the young banker who died eight days after taking a fatal tablet of bichloride of mercury by mistake is prostrated,and was unable to attend the funeral of her husband yesterday. She is under the care of physicians, and her condition is reported as being critical.

Mrs. Walker, it has been reported, and it has not been denied, had taken the bicloride of mercur yfrom the original bottle after it was broken and placed them in a box that had contained asperin and which still bore the label "asperin."

Her husband, hunting for the headache powder, found the box and took one of the tablets, not knowing that he had taken poison for hours afterward, which was too late for the doctors to save his life. It is this which is believed to be causing Mrs. Walker great distress.

The funeral of the banker was the largest that has ever been held ni Monroe. The First Baptist Church, where the services was held, was not large enough to hold the flowers.

The body was first taken to the home of the father, B. S. Walker, Sr., who is also is a banker, president of the Bank of Monroe and president of the Monroe Cotton Mills. Hundreds of the boyhood friends of the young banker viewed remains there and to the cemetery where interment and ta the cemetery where interment was made in a lot that had been given only the day before by the former Governor of Georgia, H. D. McDaniel.

YOSHIHITO SAID TO BE IMPROVING

Ministerial Order Reopening Theatres and Amusement Places.

THE CRISIS IS PASSED.

Hundreds of Japanese Kneel in Streets Throughout Night and Pray For the Mikado.

Tokyo, May 24.—Emperor Yoshihito was believed to be out of all danger today. He passed a favorable night, sleeping well. His temperature on awakening was 99.2, pulse 76, respiration normal.

A ministerial order wis issued,opening the theatres and amusement places which were closed when news came two days ago that the Mikado's condition was serious.

The eight court physicians still are in attendance and their vigilance is in nowise relaxed but the atmosphere around Yomana palace is more hopeful.

Throughout the night troops were stationed about the palace and hundreds of loyal Japanese knealt in the streets in prayer for the recovery of the Emperor whose condition today, though far more satisfactory than yesterday by no means indicated that danger of death was passed. Though they have issued bulletins expressive of hope over the outcome, the court physicians are taking every precaution to prevent a relapse, of which they are noticeably apprehensive.

Empress Sadaki spent several hours at the bedside of her imperial husband today, and insisted upon ministering to him. She was greatly rejoiced by the assurances of the emperor's physicians that he had a better chance to survive today than yesterday.

Emperor Yoshohiti is showing unexpected vitality in combating pneumonia. His was never considered a robust constitution, and he was repeatedly warned by the imperial doctors to take every safeguard, for it was feared the fiirst severe illness would carry him off.

GIRLS' PETITION IN VAIN.

School Board Regards as Final Its Decision Against Class- Day-Flowers.

Norfolk Va., May 24. — Because the School Board regarded as final its decision against allowing the girls of the high school graduating class to wear flowers at the June exercises, a petition signed by 53 members of the class for permissin to wear flowers was turned down by the board Wednesday afternoon.

With the exception of three of the young women the petition represented the wishes of the entire class. It is stated that inasmuch as American Beauty roses the variety which it has been accustomed to wear can be purchased in loots at $3 per dozen if the board objected t,o the girls wearing them in dozen bunches they would be glad to cut the bunch in half or even quarter. Plantively, they added, that to deprive them of wearing posies will rob the commencement of one of its sweetest charms.

Set afire at a heater in Shenandoah, Pa., Martn, the 3-year-old son of Martin Brophy, of Brownsville, was so horribly burned that he may die.

At the Wadesville, Pa., colliery, Frank Ulitz, was caught by a fall of coal and debris and buried; but a rescue force promptly dug him out to find that his skull was fractured.

MAY FESTIVAL.

Many braved the elements last night to witness the crowning of the Queen of May in Parish Hall of Christ Church, and notwithstanding the many drawbacks, it was a great success, as also were the flag drill, the Scotch sketch, the Japanese fan drill and the scene from cowboy life on the plains. The songs were so bright and the children did their parts so well that the storm outside was forgotten for the time. However, as many were not present who would have liked to seen it, it was decided to repeat it on Monday evening May 28th, provided the weather is good.

ENFORCING NEW LAW.

The first arrests made under the new traffic ordinances which recently went into effect were made this morning. Mose Stephens and Henry Sisson, charged with driving on the wrong side of the street, were each fined $1. The police department will commence a crusade to see that the law is strictly observed.

RECONCILIATION WEDDING TODAY

Princess Victoria United to Prince Ernest August In Berlin.

NOTABLE GATHERIN

Unites Reigning Houses of Hohenzollern, Guelph and Hanover and Ends Contention.

Berlin, May 24.—Concentrated power was the keynote that today characterized the marriage of Princess Victoria Luise Adelheid Mathilde Charlotte, only daughter of the Kaiser of Germany, and representative of the House o Hohenzollern, to Prince Ernest August of Cumberland, scion of the House of Guelph, Duke of Brunswick and Luneberg. The wedding was unique in these points.

It was witnessed by Kaiser Wilhelm II o Germany, King George V of England, and Czar Nichalos II of Russia, standing in a group with the Kaiserin and Queen nearby, perhaps the most notable gathering of royalty that Europe has seen in a generation, the three greatest powers of the old world being together.

After the private wedding and the congratulations of the immediate families, came the formal religious ceremony in the chapel, at which chie court chaplain, Dr. D. Dryander, officiated, it being his fourth wedding ceremony n the Kaiser's family.

The match united the reigning houses of Hohenzollern, Guelph and Hanover, thus eliminating the Hanoverian throne as the ancient bone of contention between the Kaiser and the King, Prnce Ernest, the hereditary scion of the throne of Hanover, and a relative of King George, is now a member of the Kaiser's household, so that England and Germany cannot well quarrel over his rights.

The "reconcilation wedding" that thus bridges a gulf of fifty years, formally began at 5 p. m., in the private chapel of the Kaiser's palace at Potsdam, was preceded by a civil ceremony in the rooms of the palace, witnessed only by the members of the two families, Hohenzollern and Guelph.

DETERMINED SUICIDE.

Wife Wrests Weapons From Him, But Man Tears Wound With Hands.

Cheyenne, Wyo., May 24.—Laying aside the paper in which he read of a local suicide, Zephaniah B. Berlin, traveling auditor of the Union Pacific Railroad, went to bed Thursday night and a few minutes later his wife saw him arise and go into adjoining room. Suddenly he cried out excitedly and she leaped from the bed and ran to him.

Berlin stood in the centre of the room slashing at his throat with a razor. Mrs. Berlin threw herself upon him and struggled for possession of the weapon. She was cut repeatedly about the hands and arms, but finally wrested the razor from him. Berlin then walked to a table with blood spurting from hole in his neck, picked up a dull penknife and began sawing at his wound.

Again his wife disarmed him, but he seized a pair of shears and jabbed them into the hole in his throat. Once more she succeeded in depriving him of the weapon, but he staggered into another room, grasped a jagged piece of wood and pushed it into his throat, turning it about in an attempt to enlarge the wound he had made.

Failing to do this, he caught the edges of the wound in his hands and literaly tore his throat open, collapsing from loss of blood.

FORFEITED THEIR COLLATERAL

The annual raid of the tenderloin district of Alexandria was made by the police department last night with the result that the city treasurer is richer by $400 this morning. Eight women were arrested charged with keeping disorderly houses. They each deposited $50 collateral which was forfeited in the police court this morning.

WILL TEST NEW LOAN LAW

Establishing of Offices in Virginia Regarded as Evasion of Statute

Corporation Counsel E. H. Thomas, of Washington, has decided to test the loan law at the first opportunity. He said yesterday that he would take into the police court the first case brought to his attention where a District applicant obtained a loan at rates of interest prohibited in Washington from any of the branch offices established on the Virginia side of the river.

Mr. Thomas intimated that he considers the establishment of these officers an evasion of the law.

"In view of this fact," said" Mr. Thomas, "it is doubtful if loans made by them on applications filed in the District could be enforced in the local courts."

The War Department yesterday passed on an interesting phase of the loan question when it gave permission to District pawnbrokers now operating in Virginia to build a board platform on the west side of the Virginia approach to the Highway bridge over the Potomac. The fact that the government owns the property at the south end of this bridge, upon which the brokers ask for right of way, brought the matter before the War Department.

Some officials of the District contend that the buildings which the brokers erected on Virginia soil were put up for the purpose of evading the loan in the District.

The application for the erection of the board platform is made by Crandall Mackey, Commonwealth's attorney for Alexandria county.

The validity of the loan law was upheld by Justice Mullowny in the police court yesterday, when he overruled the demurrer to the information charging Bernard Reagan with violation of the regulation and imposed fine of $25 in each of the three counts of the charge.

SHIPMENTS OF FRUIT.

Southern Railway Will be Transporting Peaches From Georgia Next Week.

The Southern Railway expects to move the first shipment of peaches from Georgia points beginning next Monday.

From records of shipments of apples, it seems that Virginia is making wonderful strides in the growing o that popular fruit. During 1911, 169,379 barrels of apples were shipped from points on the Washington division of the Southern Railway, making 752 carloads. The season of 1912 showed an even greater increase in shipments, 311,499 barrels being shipped making 1,285 carloads. They were delivered to northern points. Northern capitalists, it is understood, are buying all the good bearing apple orchards that they can secure throughout the best part of the Virginia apple district.

Mr. Edgar Thompson, a popular employe of the Alexandria Gazette, will celebrate his 18th birthday tonght at his home on South Fairax street.

MARCHING OF VETERANS.

Confederate Memorial Day Exercises Will Be Held This Evening

R. E. Lee Camp United Confederate Veterans, with its auxiliary associations will at 6 o'clock this evening pay tribute to the memory of the Confederate dead buried in and near this city.

Rev. John Lee Allison, D. D., pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church, will deliver the eulogy. The members of Lee Camp will assemble at their hall, on Prince street, at 5:30 o'clock, and march to the Confederate monument, corner of Prince and Washington streets, if the weather permits where the principal exercises will be conducted. Then the camp will proceed to the yard of Christ Church, where the Alexandria Light Infantry will fire a volley. In the forenoon committees strewed flowers on the graves of Confederate dead in the different cemeteries.

Should the weather prove inclement at the hour fixed for the exercises, they will be held in the Young People's Building, as has been done on former occasions.

The citizens generally responded to the appeal or flowers for the decoration purposes.

STRAWBERRIES AND FLOWERS.

The supply of country produce in market this morning did reach the proportions of last Saturday, and prices were firm, in most cases tending upwards.

Many pretty flowers were on benches, and there was a plethora of strawberries, but prices were still comparatively high. Some varieties were held at 25 cents per box, although a few country people were selling three boxes for 25 cents. In some stores they could be bought at still lower prices.

DAUGHTERS OF LIBERTY.

The inclement weather did not have any effect on the meeting of Friendship, No. 28, Council, Daughters of Liberty, last night, as there was a good attendance. One new member was initiated. This Council is making preparations to celebrate its 4th anniversary on June 13th with music, recitations and speeches. Refreshments will be served on the occasion. The two Councils of Washington, D. C., and Potomac View of St. Elmo, will be invited to be present.

MORE HEAVY RAINS.

Torrential Downpours Yesterday Afternoon And Last Night.

The cloudy conditions which prevailed yesterday brought heavy showers towards the close of the day, which were followed by other downpours most of last night.

The wind was from the south during the day, but late in the afternoon it veered to the northwest when the temperature fell, dissipating summer conditions which had previously prevailed.

The tides in the river have been high during the past few days, but nothing approaching a flood stage been noticed.

The rains of the past few days spread over a large area.

CAPTURED BEAR ALIVE.

Bruin Now Safely Housed in Mr. Muncey's Barn.

Bland, Va., May 24.—Jess Muney, a well known farmer and hunter n this part of Bland county, with is three small boys, started out a ew days ago to put fresh bait in his ear trap. After accomplishing this hey strayed over into the headwaters f Kimberlin, where a most attractve-looking bear was forced up a ree by a small black dog, while the ig dogs engaged two other bruins n an opposite hill side. These bruins oon left their associate to his fate. He was guarded by Jess Muncey nd his smallest boy. While the two ldest ones went to the settlement otifying J. Gordon Muncey and anther man who at once mounted two orses, and taking the boys on behind hem made their way rapidly to the op of the mountain. Leaving the orses they plunged down the deep ountain side with Winchesters, axe nd rope in hand. Soon they saw the oveted prize, and after a short conerence, it was decided to take him live. So the real fun began. J. Gordon Muncey was elected to fell he tree, while Jess and the other hen stood out near where the top f the tree was expected to fall.

But fortunately the tree took an nexpected turn and went down towrd hollow where the wild beast was orced to take another tree. When he tree was cut down the bear was o stunned that he was covered and onquered before he could recover. He as carried in and is now safely housd in the second story of Jess Muney's barn with a chain to confine im. The collar will soon bear the ame of "Uncle John."

CHARGED WITH BIGAMY.

Rastus Swanger in Jail, Wanted for Forgery and Murder.

Lynchburg, Va., May 24.—A new and unlooked for development in the complications attending the situation in which Rastus Swanger, now serving a three months sentence here for securing money under false pretensese, came when a young woman arrived here and introduced herself as "Mrs. Rastus Swanger." She was an entirely different individual from the young woman who has been in this city with Swanger and who has stated that she was his wife.

Chief of Police Seay has received a letter from A. D. Hood sheriff of Fairfield County, S. C., stated that Swanger is wanted in Winnsboro, S. C., for forgery, and since Swanger's conviction here a number of requests have come from other cities for further information regarding the prisoner. It is also learned that the police are investigating the first woman's statement to them that Swanger is wanted to serve out a term for murder as she said that he had told her he was under sentence of death in some other state and had escaped. She gave the police here information about his check-flashing practices. It is also known that the postoffice authorities are trying to connect him with violating the postal laws by fraudulent practices.

ASSEMBLY ADJOURNS.

Sessions to be Held in Chicago Next Year.

Atlanta, May 24.—Singing that old fashioned hymn, "All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name, Let Angles Prostrate Fall," the Presbyterian Assembly came to a close yesterday afternoon in the Baptist Tabernacle.

This final session was one of the most important held during the assembly. In the morning a vain attempt was made to abolish the position of assitant clerk, upon the recommendation of State Clerk Roberts, who said that it would be in the interests of economy.

The question of proposed consolidation of the board of education and the college board and the question of creating a single treasurer for all boards were deferred until the 1914 assembly, which meets in Chicago.

CATCH BIG STURGEON.

Monster Fish is Harpooned—Sells For $120.

Philadelphia, Pa.,May 24—The biggest fish caught along the Delaware river docks for many years, a big sturgeon weighing more that 200 lbs. was harpooned by a boathook in the dock yesterday, at Pier 55 South Wharves, along the Red Star Line steamship Manitou, loading for Antwerp. The fish had evidently lost his way, for it swam directly into the dock, where a number of workmen were discharging bunker coal into the hold of the Manitou.

All hands immediately stopped work and headed byEngineer Harris, of the Mowlett floating derrick, started out with boathooks and brought the big fellow back. The fish, which proved to be a roe sturgeon, and weighing 230 pounds was sold at once on the pier for $120.

It is believed that he sturgeon was one of a school bound up the Delaware river to spawn and strayed away from the others. Otherwise it would have kept in deep water.

BOY DIES FROM WOUND.

Richmond Youth Stabbed During Quarrel With Negro.

Richmond, Va., May 24.—Fourteen-year-old William Johnson, who was stabbed by a negro youth in a quarrel over a dog, died yesterday.

Four negroes are under arrest in connection with the assault. Two of them will be prosecuted and the others dismissed, the police stated.

Elijah Gurley, 21 years old and Clarence Franklin, 15, are the prisoners who will be brought to trial. The knife with which the boy was stabbed, is said by the police to have belonged to Gurley. Franklin is alleged to have been the one who did the stabbing.

Fulton has not been stirred up to such a pitch of excitementi nmonths as it was Thursday night over the assault on the Johnson boy. For a time there were indications of clash between the races but a strong police detail succeeded in quelling disorder as fast as it started.

The Johnson boy and Edward Myers 15 years old, 410 Nicholson St. were on their way home a few minutes after 10 o'clock, when they passed a crowd of negro boys. The negroes had a dog with them. Remarks were pressed about the dog and somebody kicked it.

Angry words followed and a fight started. One of the negroes produced a knife and lunged at Johnson and Myers. He inflicted slight cuts on Myers' arms and face and then turned on Johnson with the knife with fatal results.

At Corporation Court of the City of Alexandria, Virginia, continued and held at the Court House of said city on Tuesday, April 29th, 1913.

Present. Hon. Louis C. Barley, Judge.

Alma E. Powell, Vs. In Chancery.
William T. Powell.

Upon the application of the complainant stating specifically the last known place of abode of the defendant, the Court on this 29th day of April, 1913, doth grant the following order of publication.

The object of this suit is to obtain for the complainant a divorce from the bond of matrimony from the defendant on the ground of desertion and abandonment for a period of more than three years before the bringing of this suit, the care and custody of the infant child of the marriage, and for general relief, and on affidavit having been filed that the defendant, William T. Powell, is not a resident of the said State of Virginia, it is ordered that he do appear here within fifteen days after due publication and do what is necessary to protect his interest in this suit.

And it is further ordered that a copy of said order of publication be published once a week for four successive weeks in the Alexandria Gazette, a newspaper published in the City of Alexandria, Virginia; that a copy be posted at the front door of the Court House of the said City on or before the next succeeding rule day after this order is entered and that a copy of said order of publication shall be sent by registered mail by the Clerk of this Court addressed to the said non-resident defendant, William T. Powell, at 739 Fairmont street, North West, Washington, D. C., his last known place of abode.

CONFEDERATE MEMORIAL DAY.

According to annual custom the members of R. E. Lee Camp of Confederate Veterans will assemble this evening in front of the monument at the intersection of Prince and Columbus street for the purpose of observing the anniversary of the departure from this city of the Alexandria boys on May 24, 1861, who played a noble part in the four years' conflict for rights guaranteed the Old Dominion at the formation of the Federal Union. A prominent feature of these exercises will be paying respect to the memory of those of their number who died in the clash of war.

Rev. John Lee Allison pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church, a son of a Confederate Veteran, his father having served during the four years' conflict and wounded half an hour after the surrender of the Army of Northern Virginia, will deliver the oration this year.

Some persons now living remember reunions of veterans of the war of 1812, and later those who participated in the war with Mexico. There is but one Alexandrian at present living who served in this last conflict.

The ranks of Alexandria's quota for the Southern army are becoming thinner all the time, and ere long survivors of the Army of Northern Virginia will be as few as those who fought under Wingfield Scott.

For that reason Alexandrians of the present generation should manifest interest in this yearly appearance upon our streets of ex-Confederate soldiers, who should cause as much enthusiasm as did the survivors of the siege of Troy among the Hellenes in by-gone years.

R. E. Lee Camp is one of the city's honored institutions and their building with its many relics of war is an interesting place to those who visit it.

FUNERAL OF C. R. DAVIS.

Downpour Occurs When Casket is Lowered in the Grave.

Few people who were present at the funeral of C. Randolph Davis yesterday afternoon will forget the interment of one, who in life exhibited so many of the qualities that go to make a man popular in his community. Few men who passed down the rugged path of life met the daily trials incident to every man's career with so smiling a countenance and in fair weather, or in foul, exhibited those happy traits of camaraderie that endeared him to those with whom he was associated.

Hardly had the funeral cortege left the residence of the deceased, on Prince street, where wagons had been loaded with floral tributes from friends and organizations to which he belonged, than the clouds, which for hours previously had darkened the sky, began to gather, and the grey atmosphere, that foretells the coming for hours previously had darkened the scene, banishing the few weak streaks of sunshine which vainly endeavored to penetrate the gathering gloom and shine upon the casket of one whose chief aim in life had been to scatter, by his personality, the warm rays of friendship into those lives with which he came in contact.

Arriving at the Presbyterian cemetery, a resting spot which has few equals in this country, because of its picturesque setting, the party was met by a driving rain, which reminded one of those tropical downpours that occur during the rainy season in far-off Southern lands. As the casket was tenderly lowered to its final resting place, by those who had known Randy Davis perhaps better than his other friends, the storm burst with all its fury. Far-off in the distance behind the western hills from whose soil Mr. Davis sprung, the lightning brought in strong relief the spire of the Theological Seminary. In the near distance Hunting Creek ploughed its sullen way to the broad arms of the Potomac.

Surrounding the grave were those who had been intimately connected by birth, by love, and by friendship with Mr. Davis. Despite the downpouring flood they stood with heads bared to pay their last sad respect to the dead. At the head of the grave Rev. Wm. J. Morton, rector of Christ Church, his priestly garments drenched with rain, intoned the solemn service prescribed by the Episcopal Church.

When he had finished his place was taken by James W. Bales, Exalted Ruler of Alexandria Lodge of Elks, whose members in spite of the storm had followed their faithful brother to his last resting place. The officers of the lodge gathered around the open grave, and recited the impressive ritual which declared that "the faults of their brothers are written upon the sand, their virtues upon the tablets of and memory." As the concluding words of the Exalted Ruler's eulogy were said, each member of the lodge dropped into the open grave the unfading amarith surrounded by the ivy, tokens of their love and affection, and uttering the last words, "Peace be with you," turned away.

SMILES.

By The Second Ward Bard.

THE SECOND WARD BARD'S VALEDICTORY.

The story's told ,the song is sung, the lyre is laid away,
The muse has fled to find a surer port,
Some other pen must do the work that he's laid down today,
Some other bard fair Erato must court.

Yes, some will jeer and say his verse was poor, of little worth,
Ah, yes, my friends, your words are but too true,
Of ruhmers of the second class you'll never find a dearth,
For masters of the lyric style are few.

But maybe to some saddened heart his verse has brought good cheer,
Or maybe, it has caused some one to smile,
If so, he'll never care how much his critics laugh and sneer,
For his efforts have been proven well worth while.

And so he'll say a fond adieu to those who've hoped him well
And wish them luck where e'er their pathways lie
For it has been a pleasure these poor rhytmice yarns to tell
And it's sort of hard to say a last good-bye.

Two checks, one of which was in payment of "expenses incurred during the strike at Lawrence, Mass., were traced to the offices of the American Woolen Company, at the dynamite conspiracy trial yesterday The checks were issued upon the authority of President William M Wood, of the company, and were payable to Frederick E. Atteaux, a dye manuacturer, who, with Wood and Dennis J. Collins, are charged with conspiring to "plant" dynamite at Lawrence, to discredit the striking textile operatives during the industrial troubles in 1912. Collins and Breen have testified that they "planted" the dynamite; Breen has said that Atteaux paid for the work, and that Pitman furnished the dynamite, and Wm. H. Rice, a quarry owner, has corroborated Breen's story of Pitman's connection with the alleged plot.

Robert Oliver Bailey
Vs. In Chancery.
Margaret Mary Moody Bailey.

Upon the application of the complainant stating specifically the last known place of abode of the defendant, and process having been issued and returned by the sergeant showing the defendant not being found within the jurisdiction of the Court, the Court on this 21st day of April, 1913, doth grant the following order of publication:

The object of this suit is to obtain for the complainant a divorce from the bond of matrimony from the defendant, on the ground of wilful desertion and abandonment, and for general relief.

And an affidavit having been made and filed, that the defendant Margaret Mary Moody Bailey is not a resident of the State of Virginia, it is ordered that she do appear here within fifteen (15) days after due publication, and do what is necessary to protect her interest in this suit.

And it is further ordered that a copy of this order be published once a week for four successive weeks in the Alexandria Gazette a newspaper published in the City of Alexandria, Va., that a copy be posted at the front door of the Court House of said city on or before the next succeeding rule day after this order is entered, and that a copy of said publication shall be sent by registered mail by the Clerk of this Court, to the said non-resident defendant at the Continental Hotel, in Washington, D. Marion H. Pender, Complainant,
Vs.
Mary Pender, Defendant.

Upon the application of complainant stating specifically the last known place of abode of the defendant, and it appearing to the Court that process has been issued and returned by the Sergeant of the City of Alexandria, Virginia, showing the defendant not being found within the jurisdiction of this Court, the Court, on this 6th day of May, 1913, doth grant the following order of publication:

The object of this suit is to obtain a decree absolutely divorcing the complainant, Marion H. Pender, from the defendant, Mary Pender, on the ground of adultery on the part of said defendant and for general relief, and an affidavit having been filed that the defendant, Mary Pender, is a non-resident of the state of Virginia, it is ordered that she do appear here within fifteen days after due publication of said order of publication and do what is necessary to protect her interest in this suit.

And it is further ordered that a copy of said order of publication be published once a week in the Alexandria Gazette, a newspaper published in the City of Alexandria, Virginia; that a copy be posted at the front door of the Court House, of the Circuit Court of said city, on or before the next succeeding Rule Day after this order is entered; and that a copy of said order of publication shall be sent by registered mail by the Clerk of this Court addressed to the said non-resident defendant at Crockett, Houston county, Texas, her last known place of address.

SHE GAVE UP ALL HOPE

Physicians Failed To Help Mrs Green, But She Finally Found Relief in Cardui.

Meetze, Va.—Mrs. J. C. Green of this place, says: "I suffered with womanly troubles so that I could hardly sit up. Two of the best doctors in our town treated me, and I tried different medicines, until I gave up all hope of ever getting well.

One day, I decided to try some Cardui. It did so much for me that I ordered some more, and it cured me! Today, I feel as well as I ever did in my life.

The pains and the trouble are all gone. I feel like another person in every way. I wish every sufferer could know what Cardui will do for sick women."

A few doses of Cardui at the right time, will save many a big doctor bill by preventing serious sickness.

It tones up the nervous system, and helps make pale cheeks fresh and rosy.

Thousands of weak women have been restored to health and happiness by using Cardui. Suppose you try it.

It may be just the medicine you need.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

Mrs. Jerome Harris drowned her four months old in a cistern in Toledo, Ohio, yesterday. The woman then saturated the bedding with gasoline, locked all the doors and set fire to the house. Mrs. Harris and her three other children were within. Neighbors broke in and extinguished the fire. The woman, 29 years old, was discharged a month ago from a hospital, for the insane.

John Anhut, the lawyer convicted of bribery in attempting to obtain the release of Harry K. Thaw from the Matteawan Asylum or the Criminal Insane, was sentenced yesterday to serve not less than two years nor more than four in Sing Sing Prison.

Mrs. John Harris, aged 71 years, was struck by an automobile containing five Pennsylvanians last Saturday evening while crossing the turnpike in front of her home, near Funkstown, Md., died from her injuries last night at the Washington County Hospital.

A dispatch from Buenos Aires, Argentina, says the hydraulic plant in a small island on the Riacheulo Creek near the confluence of the River Platte yesterday exploded with terrible effect. Thirty person were killed and 51 wounded. The plant was destroyed. It belonged to the government. Riachuelo forms part of Buenes Aires Harbor, and is a gathering place for sailing vessels.

Asbury N. Thompson, 38 years old a war department clerk, who was despondent over a long illness, ended his life in Washington yesterday afternoon by shooting himself in the left temple. Thompson was separated from his wife. They had no children.

Pastor G. A. Irwin, former president of the General Conference of the Seventh Day Adventists, died at the Washington Sanitarium yesterday. Pastor Irwin was born in Ohio in 1884.

A dispatch from Merigold, Miss. says five minutes after a trivial quarrel between Marion Henry, Jr., and John Law had started, two men were dead and four seriously wounded—a brother ha killed a brother and a son seriously wounded his father. The dead are Will McMullin and Jake McMullin, brothers, and the injured Marion Henry Sr., Marion Henry Jr., J. D. Breen, and Law, all loggers. The tragedy took place in front of a store at Breens Mill, about 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

Richard Curtis Smith, oiler, and H. F. Bock, chief machinist's mate are dead and Alma Miller, oiler, who risked his life in an attempt to save Bock, is in a dying condition on the United States torpedoboat destroyer Stewart, at San Diego, Mexico, yesterday. The accident occurred 28 miles off port during a speed test when a steam pipe in the engine room blew out. The engines were turning 200 revolutions a minute and the destroyer was rushing through the water at the rate of 28 1-2 knots an hour.

The Court of Appeals of the District of Columbia yesterday overruled motions for a writ of error and a hearing of the contempt case against Samuel Gompers, John Mitchell, and Frank Morrison, officers of the American Federation of Labor. The writ of error was sought in order to carry the case to the United States Supreme Court. The refusal of the Court of Appeals to permit the appeal, however, does not necessarily abr labor leaders from reaching the court of last resort. It is expected that a writ of certiorari will be filed in the United States Supreme Court today or Monday.

NOTICE.

Department of Health.
Notice to Midwives:—

Your attention is called to Section 25 of the City Health Laws which reads as follows:

"It shall be unlawful for any person to act as an accoucher or midwife in the City of Alexandria, without first obtaining a license from the Commissioner of Revenue of said city to practice midwifery.

Such license shall be issued by the Commissioner of Revenue as other licenses are issued upon the payment of the sum of one dollar to the Treasurer of the City of Alexandria and upon producing a certificate signed by the Health Officer to the effect that the applicant has been examined by him and is deemed qualified to perform the services required in such cases.

In accordance therewith no one will be allowed to practice midwifery on or after June 1st 1913 without first obtaining a license as above cited.
